We launched DesignandBuildwithMetal.com 20 years ago to help Manufacturers and Suppliers market their metal construction products and services to construction professionals.

We target Contractors, Architects and key Metal Construction Industry Executives at the Manufacturing and Supply level of the industry. These Construction Professionals arrive in research or buy mode to seek content strictly devoted to metal roofing, metal walls, metal buildings/framing and related products.

Together, we've built a resource for construction professionals when they are online and on the hunt for metal construction products. Thank you very much for your consideration and support!

Join the 20th Anniversary Celebration and call, text or email me to learn specifics about how your company can receive a 20% Discount in 2027.

We're honored to serve the industry and are proud of our tremendous reach – please compare:

- 2 million-plus website visits/year.
- 91% organic website traffic, with 83% from the U.S. and Canada.
- More than 2,800 project case studies, 1,300-plus supplier directory listings, thousands of news postings, and hundreds of featured articles, columns/blogs and product descriptions are spotlighted on our website.
- Weekly eMail Newsletter circulation of 41,000-plus: contractors (40%), architects (40%), manufacturers/suppliers (15%), building owners, homeowners, code officials, students, educators and developers (5%).

As always, your ads and editorial content (all linked to your website) are strategically positioned on our site to be in front of visitors who are searching for info about your specific products and services. We handle all of the uploading.

Please be sure to send your projects, articles and news. Advertiser content receives preferred treatment on our site, in the weekly newsletter and via posts on our social media accounts – always appearing in a Leadership Position.

I'm excited to work with you in 2027!

WE'D LIKE TO HELP YOU GROW YOUR BUSINESS BY DRIVING EVEN MORE TRAFFIC TO YOUR WEBSITE IN 2027!

Last year, we revamped the PLUS and PREMIUM Programs, increasing their average view totals by millions. This year, traffic growth has risen considerably, driving projected totals up again. Please check out the average view totals for our most popular Programs at the bottom of Page 4. Note, too, that we show three popular Programs, but if you see a better mix for you, we can build a Customized Program to meet your specific goals.

Whether you are a long-time customer, or a company thinking about getting more involved here, please call, text or email me – or send me a good time when we can talk about how to optimize results for your DesignandBuildwithMetal.com Program. However you want to connect, you'll know all your options and exact costs with special discounts applied.

Call me to learn how to trigger additional 20% Discounts for your Program in 2027.

More aggressive DesignandBuildwithMetal.com Programs can sell out. We can always accommodate more Advertisers, but I can take the best care of you the sooner we talk. I am excited to have this Celebration Discount to use to help us say Thank You to as many customers and companies as we can. – John
