YOUR MARKETING PARTNER

*Providing...daily website updates
...daily social media posts
...weekly email newsletter
...custom solo newsletters*

Since 2007 we've helped to promote your products and services to design and construction professionals.

And major improvements are coming for 2026!

Advertising/Content Packages on DesignandBuildwithMetal.com are now even better...

- Premium Package Advertisers now receive several additional product placements, bringing the total number of anticipated views (based on the past year's statistics) to nearly 8 million. Meanwhile, the cost of the Premium Package has been reduced by 18%! (details on page 3)
- Plus Package Advertisers will also receive additional product placements in 2026, increasing the anticipated views to just over 4 million. (details on page 3)
- Landing Page Highlight Ads are all-new for 2026! These super-sized ads (details on page 7) are a great way to place your marketing message in front of visitors to one of five specialized pages.

We're honored to serve the industry and are proud of our stats, like these...

- 1.64 million-plus website visits in 2025.
- 88% organic website traffic, with 82% from the U.S. and Canada.
- Content devoted exclusively to metal roofing, metal walls, metal buildings and related products.
- More than 2,800 project case studies, 1,300-plus supplier directory listings, thousands of news postings, and hundreds of featured articles, columns/blogs and product descriptions are spotlighted on our website.
- Weekly eMail Newsletter circulation of 40,000-plus: architects (40%), contractors (40%), manufacturers/suppliers (15%), building owners, homeowners, code officials, students, educators and developers (5%).

As always, your ads and editorial content (all linked to your website) are strategically positioned on our site to be in front of visitors who are searching for information about your specific products and services. We handle all of the uploading. As you review this media kit, please keep in mind:

- 3 high-value advertising packages, and add-ons, are offered – See Page 3 for prices and views.
- Advertiser content receives preferred treatment on our site, in the weekly newsletter and via posts on our social media accounts.

3 OUTSTANDING ADVERTISING PACKAGES

Exciting New Add-ons and Premium Pkg. Cost Drop = Fantastic Value For 2026!

Premium Package advertisers receive a huge price drop of nearly one-fifth off the 2025 cost, along with the increased value of several additional ads shown in red on the chart. Along with preferred editorial and social media privileges, this package offers a dominant marketing presence. (Premium Package offers a 39% discount vs. buying each product separately.)

Plus Package advertisers also receive additional ad placements shown in red on the chart. Coupled with preferred editorial and social media treatment, the value of this high-visibility program is greatly enhanced. (Plus Package offers a 29% discount vs. buying each product separately.)

Base Package advertisers continue to receive a solid minimum value with exclusive editorial treatment and social media coverage, as well as the ability to add on additional advertising products to their program.
